

Allied Health Professionals working with industry for real world impact

- Wednesday 23 May 2018, 5.00pm -7.00pm
- Centuria Building, Teesside University, room H0.01

Programme

5.00pm - 5.30pm	Registration and refreshments (Centuria foyer)
5.30pm - 5.35pm	Welcome Samantha Harrison (CAHPR NE hub co-lead)
5.35pm - 5.55pm	Introduction to the Healthcare Innovation Center and connected research opportunities Jianxin Gao (Principal Project Leader TWI)
5.55pm - 6.15pm	Linking the arts and industry to improve healthcare Darren Abbott (Principal Lecturer Enterprise & Business Engagement - School of Computing, Media and the Arts)
6.15pm - 6.35pm	Immersive and interactive 3D solutions and experiences and its application in healthcare Dan Riley (Founder and Managing Director of Spearhead Limited)
6.35pm - 6.55pm	The Senstrain – a novel medical device for self-management of phantom limb pain: From idea to market Cormac Ryan (Reader in Physiotherapy)
6.55pm - 7.00pm	Launch Small grant scheme and farewell Samantha Harrison (CAHPR NE hub co-lead)

To book your place please email: sohsc.events@tees.ac.uk