

Director of the Community for Allied Health Professions Research

The Community for Allied Health Professions Research (CAHPR) has successfully established a firm foundation for representing AHP research and innovation that is shaping AHP influence, practice, career development and research culture. CAHPR is a coalition of stakeholder AHP organisations concerned with the quality of patient care, CAHPR is seeking a Director to build on the organisation's achievements and provide strategic leadership.

The Role

- Managing and developing CAHPR.
- Working with a wide range of stakeholders to foster AHP research and innovation.
- Leading CAHPR to develop and deliver the organisation's objectives.
- Acting as the advocate for AHP research and innovation activity. Devising strategies for promoting research awareness and research activity and innovation amongst AHPs.

The Candidate

- Must have a strong interest in developing AHP research and innovation capacity.
- Will need demonstrable experience of successful leadership in healthcare, healthcare education, research or public policy development.
- Is likely to be a senior academic or a health policy specialist of national standing in their subject or profession.
- Strong communication, interpersonal, and team-building skills, with the ability to collaborate effectively with diverse stakeholders.

The Appointment

The appointment is for an initial three-year term. CAHPR is looking to fill this role by June 2024.

An honorarium of £16,000 p.a. is offered for an anticipated time commitment of 1 day per week.

For an informal discussion about this role, contact Hazel Roddam at:
hazeroddam@gmail.com

Applications should be received by 26th April 2024. Please send to cahpr@csp.org.uk

Please provide a cover letter describing your skills, experience and motivations relevant to the position and your CV.

Interviews will be held online at the beginning of May.